

Success Profile Job Description

Position Title: State Policy Analyst

Date: March 2025

The American Indian Higher Education Consortium (AIHEC) is the collective spirit and unifying voice of our nation's Tribal Colleges and Universities (TCUs). AIHEC provides leadership and influences public policy on American Indian and Alaska Native higher education issues through advocacy, research, and programmatic initiatives; promotes and strengthens Indigenous languages, cultures, communities, lands, and Tribal nations; and through its unique position, serves member institutions and emerging TCUs.

Position Summary

The State Policy Analyst's primary function is to support AIHEC public policy system in multiple areas by conducting policy and program research, analyze policy, regulations, and administrative data sets, work directly with state and local partners to support policy implementation, and contribute to the design and preparation of technical assistance and any related issue briefs and tools. The ideal candidate is required to be willing to address disparities in both public policy and public systems, highly motivated, business-driven and be ready to collaboratively work closely with AIHEC's cross-disciplinary policy and leadership team.

Essential Functions:

Assisting in designing/developing a range of high-quality written materials, including policy reports and policy memos
Facilitating both in-person and webinar discussions on related policy topics
Drafting organizational comments and statement for the record responding to state policy actions
Conduct research and data analysis on policy issues related to post-secondary education, economic opportunity, financial security, inequality, and disparities
Working directly with state/local government agencies and community-based organizations to implement federal/state policy and/or initiatives to advance equity
Drive policy advocacy campaigns to protect and strengthen AIHEC as an organization
Collaborating with national partners on strategy to advance AIHEC's policy priorities
Tracking policy proposals and implementation in assigned content areas
Helping to prepare and complete deliverables and reports for AIHEC
Representing AIHEC externally by attending policy briefings and meetings
Quantitative and qualitative data collection and analysis
Prepare and conduct presentations and briefings for AIHEC's policymakers and leadership
Assist when required with hiring and supervision of student interns, research fellows, and volunteers
Additional duties to support the AIHEC mission and vision as required

Required Education, Experience and Attributes (minimum requirements):

- Bachelor's degree (or equivalent) in education, public administration, public policy, or any related fields
- Advanced knowledge of Microsoft Office Suite, PowerPoint, Acrobat, and Excel
- Understanding of American Indian and Alaska Native higher education issues and other Indigenous communities and Tribal nations.
- Strong analytical and research skills. Some familiarity with statistics and quantitative methods preferred
- Experience organizing complex projects involving a diverse group of partners and stakeholders;
- Familiarity with the AIHEC policy environment, including public agencies, interest groups, and the state Legislature;
- Strong computer experience, including word processing, spreadsheets, desktop publishing, website and email management, project management tools, and social media
- Exhibit confident verbal and written communication skills, with polished professional writing, and the ability to proofread and craft organization documents.
- Ability to present policy, practice and research information to a variety of audiences, including federal, state and local government officials and policymakers
- Excellent attention to detail, organizational, time management, negotiating, and multitasking skills
